Artist Statement I've been photographing people for over 45 years. I started by photographing my young family, back in the '70's. In more recent years, I have been photographing people on the street, both in NYC and Long Island.
My work has been in galleries, both on Long Island and in NYC. 'People At The Oculus' is a digital capture, taken in NYC. I'm always searching for that perfect confluence of people and the setting they inhabit.
