Artist Statement I find my inspiration in nature hiking and exploring the many preserves, parks, rivers and beaches of Long Island. When I can I like to paint on site. When I paint in the studio I rely on my impressions and photos . I favor a close up and intimate view . It is this view of a fleeting moment I want to share viewer through the sparkling bold images of my paintings. Having grown up around boats, I can't resist the excitement of painting a working boat with some character.
