From the Executive Director

MARC COURTADE
Executive Director
Huntington Arts Council

A recent article in LI Business noted that arts and cultural organizations play an important role in Long Island's economy, spending nearly $1.8 billion annually. The arts have always been a vibrant part of life in Huntington and on Long Island, and their economic impact is an important part of their role. The fall brings many exciting events at Huntington Arts Council. The dedicated staff brings programs and activities that continue to showcase artists, arts organizations and educational activities.

The busy summer season has ended, and memories from the 53rd Huntington Summer Arts Festival remain strong. The festival continued to offer 42 evenings of entertainment featuring something for everyone. Our Main Street Gallery housed several successful shows, and continues its busy schedule. Our Invitational Show Beyond the Sound features the work of three of our members through October 13, followed by Nightmare on Main Street and our annual Art Auction On the Block. The Huntington Art Walk will be held on Sunday, October 21 (see page 23) bringing people to Huntington to view artwork at several Huntington arts organizations.

We are proud to host the first NYSCA/ NYFA Artist as Entrepreneur Boot Camp

Program October 11 through 14. This program will help artists to build essential business skills to support their creative careers. Our NYSCA Long Island Arts Grants for the Arts program has been accelerated. Panel deliberations will be held this fall to give our grantees earlier word on funding for 2019. Our Arts in Education Journey Program offers five multi-cultural arts education workshops for teachers. We are very proud that HAC is an approved Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE) sponsor by NYS Department of Education.

The activities at HAC are exciting and enriching. Please visit us often and enjoy the arts along with us.

Kenneth O. Britt is a Licensed New York Litigation Attorney admitted to practice in The Second Judicial District of The State of New York and The United States District Court. Kenneth grew up in Port Jefferson and now lives in Huntington Station with his wife and two children. He studied business and marketing at Fairfield University in Connecticut, and earned his Juris Doctor degree at New York Law School while living in Manhattan and Brooklyn.

Andrea M. Gordon, Licensed Massage Therapist owner of Universal Touch Professional Massage, started her Photography Journey with her opening exhibit Art Amongst Friends in November 2009. After the loss of someone close she chose to create Heart To Heart Photography. Andrea's vision is to take the ordinary, make it extraordinary – inviting viewers to see what they have seen before, from a different perspective. Andrea is a member of fotofoto Gallery in Huntington.

Robin Gordon currently serves as the Vice President of Marketing for the Robert Allen Duralee Group, one of the largest to the trade companies in the home furnishings industry. Ms. Gordon oversees a marketing department of 12 and sits on the executive team for the organization. Having joined Duralee in 2004 after 7 years in her previously held position of Director of Marketing at Kravet, she is a seasoned marketing professional who is well respected in the decorative home furnishings industry.

Creative Collaboration

This summer students from Hofstra University's Summer Scholar's Academy visited our Gallery. One of the chaperones was Danangelowe A.J. Spencer, the students Photography Instructor. We were immediately taken with A.J.'s engaging personality and began discussing collaborating on a project for the Huntington Arts Council. A.J.'s photographic and video representation of the Huntington Arts Council has been featured on our website and social media platforms. A.J.'s talent and artistry is evident in the work he has done on our behalf.

Danangelowe A.J. Spencer earned a bachelors degree in Communications and Media Studies while concentrating on Film Production from Mount Saint Mary College. In addition he studied Fine Art & Film Studies. A multifaceted Jamaican born artist A.J.'s creative work includes, film, photography, graphic design, and mixed media painting. A.J. is passionate about visual storytelling and conceptual art. You can find more of his work at DAJSVISUALS.COM.

Town of Huntington

Dear Friends,
On May 1, 2018 the Huntington Town Board and the Huntington Beautification Council issued a 2018 Beautification Award to the Huntington Public Art Advisory Committee in recognition of the 25 public art projects installed on selected Traffic Signal Boxes in Huntington Village and Huntington Station since 2015. Designed by local and regional artists, these public art installations have been very popular with Town residents and visitors alike, providing creative accents that enhance the uniqueness and livability of these two important pedestrian retail districts in our community.

Images and further information about these 25 signal box project installations can be found on the Town's website at www.HuntingtonNY.gov/TrafficSignalBoxes. However, as with any artwork, these are best experienced in person, so please look for these projects as you travel in Huntington Village and Huntington Station (see the above webpage for downloadable maps of signal box project locations).
Due to the positive community response, a new round of signal box project installations has been approved by the Town Board, which are expected to take place this fall. These new projects have been funded by the Huntington Cultural Affairs Institute, Inc., a non-profit organization affiliated with the Town, along with generous contributions from the Huntington Village and the Huntington Station Business Improvement Districts (BIDs). This support will enable the installation of 11 new signal box public art projects on Main Street and New York Avenue in both Huntington Village and Huntington Station.

I invite you join me in looking forward to these new creative installations delighting us in the coming months as we journey through our community.

Sincerely,

Supervisor

Thank you to Our Interns and Student Volunteers - Summer 2018

This summer the Huntington Arts Council graciously welcomed several dedicated and enthusiastic interns and student volunteers. These young adults provided assistance in the office on a variety of projects as well as welcoming visitors to our gallery. We are happy to provide this valuable work experience and are grateful for their service.

Thank you to our interns – Grace Cergol of SUNY Geneseo, Kerry Gaye of Marist College, Amanda Saladino of Harborfields High School, Meghan Monahan of Seaford High School and Marie E. Saint-Cyr of FIT.

We'd also like to thank our student volunteers who helped with the crafts for children at the Huntington Summer

Arts Festival, Family Nights – Chloe Murphy of Walt Whitman High School, Katie Osborn of Half Hollow Hills High School, West.

Internships are available year-round to high school and college students. Non-paid internships fulfill community service requirements and written verification may be provided to students at the end of their session. Hours are flexible. Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis. To apply go to www.huntingtonarts.org/support

Celebration of 55th Anniversary

In May the Huntington Arts Council celebrated our 55th Anniversary by honoring three outstanding artists, recognizing their individual contributions to the arts and arts education: Lisa Hock Mack, Director of Huntington Fine Arts with the Harry & Sandy Chapin Arts and Humanitarian Award, Stan Brodsky, Artist and Robert Carter, Artist & Educator both with the Harry & Sandy Chapin Legacy Award. The event took place in the Huntington Fine Arts space in Greenlawn which was transformed for the celebration, but maintained the feel and energy of the amazing work that takes place there every day. The evening of dinner, live music, dancing and silent auction was attended by friends, family, HAC staff and board, Josh Chapin, Harry and Sandy's son who helped present the awards as well as Huntington Town Supervisor Chad Lupinacci. In addition to the awards the honorees received several proclamations and letters of congratulations from local and state officials.

The success of this event was the result of the dedication of so many people. Our sincere gratitude goes out to our honorees and their families, Celebration Co-Chairs Samuel E. Miller & Eileen Kathryn Boyd, the Celebration committee, HAC staff, HFA staff, members of the board, sponsors, donors, state and local officials, volunteers, and members of the community. A special thank you to board member and Creative Director/ Owner of re:Design Paul Biedermann and Independent Fine Art Professional, Tonito Valderama. Paul for his expertise and creative development of the new brand image of HAC and for designing all of the signage and communication for the event, Tonito, for providing his unique environmental art installation for display. Performances by Huntington High School String Quartet; Christopher Chang, Arielle Harvey, Haley Mortell and Hannah Bailin, Classical Guitarist Christopher Gotzen-Berg and Dudley Music; set the stage for this celebration of HAC and the arts community. It was a night to be remembered!

JOURNEY Arts in Education Program

It is so important in our community for artists to continue to do what they do best, and that is CREATE! It is imperative for our children to see the connections that artists make through experience and interconnectedness in society. The Cold Spring Harbor School District strives to provide its students with every opportunity both scholastically and creatively. Our district returns as a partner in the Huntington Arts Council Journey Program to offer our students opportunities which transcend beyond the classroom walls. -Christine Oswald, Cold Spring Harbor Art Department Chairperson.

JOURNEY integrates cultural arts into classroom curriculum encouraging an individualized experience and appreciation of cultural diversity through the arts. Established in 1985, JOURNEY is a multi-component arts in education program available to school districts providing resources for learning about world cultures through arts and arts experiences.

Program Components:

- CTLE Cultural Arts Workshops
- Discovery Lending Chests
- Visiting Artists
- High Arts Showcase

2018-2019 participating school districts: Cold Spring Harbor, Commack, Harborfields, Huntington, Northport - East Northport, Plainview - Old Bethpage and South Huntington.

CTLE Cultural Arts Workshops

Every fall the JOURNEY program offers a series of CTLE Cultural Arts Workshops for teacher professional development. The goal is to provide professional development for teachers that promotes the appreciation of culture through the arts. As a certified sponsor for Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE), teachers attending these workshops will receive a certificate of completion with approved CTLE hours.

Discovery Chests

The Discovery Chests enhance the curriculum by bringing hands on experiences to students. The chests consist of cultural artifacts, lessons, books, artworks, musical instruments and other tools. There are seven cultures represented including Ancient Egypt, Africa, China, Greece, India, Latin America, and Native America.

Discovery Chest are loaned for FREE to JOURNEY partner school districts.

To reserve a chest fill out online form at www.huntingtonarts.org or contact the Arts in Education Coordinator, at 631-271-8423x14 or at artsined@huntingtonarts.org.

Visiting Artists

Districts receive funding to book visiting artists through their participation in JOURNEY. Teaching artists from a variety of cultures and across artistic genres (dance, theatre, visual arts, music) are available for workshops, residencies and assemblies on site, in the schools. A directory of pre-approved artists is provided to each participating district.

High Arts Showcase

Junior and senior students attending JOURNEY partner schools may participate in this art exhibition at the Huntington Arts Council Main Street Gallery for no additional fee. This opportunity is a great addition to student portfolios.

2018 Cultural Arts Workshop Schedule

Location: Henry L. Stimson Middle School, Huntington Station, NY

All Programs: Professional Development or in-service credit

The workshops are FREE to districts participating in the JOURNEY program through the Huntington Arts Council. Teachers outside the JOURNEY partnership can participate for a small fee.

Increasing Children's Self Esteem through Culturally Responsive Stories

Date: 10/03/18

Time: 4:30-7:30pm

AMA YAWSON

Do you have a culturally empowered classroom, is it possible that your students are struggling with feelings of cultural, racial, gender, physical, intellectual, economic, and or social inferiority and self-loathing? Ama Yawson, attorney, Huffington Post Columnist, Mother, Entrepreneur and Author of Sunne's Gift: How Sunne Overcame Bullying to Reclaim the Gift, presents this dynamic course where participants are acquainted with the versions of the doll test used in the landmark case Brown vs. Board of Education. She will discuss findings from the studies and how they relate to children of all backgrounds. This session incorporates journalism, legal analysis, social criticism, and storytelling.

Felting: The Science and History

Date: 10/10/18

Time: 4:30-7:30pm

OKSANA DANZIGER

Felt is one of the oldest known textiles and is also considered a sustainable textile. Oksana Danziger, textile designer and professor at Fashion Institute of Technology, will discuss the history and tradition of felt through her roots in Russia and also how the growing needs for sustainable fabrics has made felt a desirable fabric in today's markets. In this workshop, participants will make samples of sustainable fabrics and complete their very own felt rose.

Indian Block Printing Trends and Traditions

Date: 10/18/18

Time: 4:30-7:30pm

PUNEETA MITTAL

Artist and educator, Puneeta Mittal, will discuss the ancient art of Indian Block Printing and current trends in modern fashion/textile design, as well as how these trends relate back to patterns Indian designers have been using for centuries. The hands-on workshop will demonstrate simple solutions to create your own stamp for block printing on fabric.

Sounds of the Andes

Date: 11/7/18

Time: 4:30-7:30pm

INKARAYKU

Looking for a creative way to introduce indigenous cultures and civilizations of the Americas to your class? Join Andres Jimenez, Carlos Moises Ambia and Naomi Sturm of NYC-based Andean Music Ensemble Inkarayku for an interactive music and culture workshop that introduces traditional music and instruments from the South American Andes. The course places these musical traditions in a narrative of pre-Colombian Andean history, cultural achievements of the Incan empire, contemporary conversations surrounding indigenous and Andean identity in the homeland and abroad. Participants are exposed to traditional instruments and musical elements. This session incorporates anthropology, history, social studies, the performing arts and storytelling.

Exploring Diaspora: Community in Motion

Date: 11/14/18

Time: 4:30-7:30pm

THEARA WARD

Workshop participants will use movement to explore the concept of Diaspora — from Africa to America, including Emancipation, Great Migration, Harlem Renaissance, Civil Rights/Black Power, Hip Hop and consider what's next. Theara Ward of Dance Theatre of Harlem will present this workshop and lay the foundation for movement discovery in a social cultural context. Participants discover how the social landscape of a community impacts one's unique voice, artistically, and how discovery can inform and facilitate change.

*Teachers must register for all workshops with the Huntington Arts Council at huntingtonarts.org.

December 7, 2018– January 5, 2019
Opening Reception
December 14, 6-8pm

Long Island Native American, Ca. 1750 by David Martine

Inspired by Long Island's history, create a work that focuses on an aspect of Long Island's cultural and natural heritage: seaside industry, farm life, Native Americans, the American Revolution, art colonies, etc. Consider paintings of historic landmarks, photos of wildlife and natural elements, portraits of reenactors, sculptures of ancestors, wooden ship models, wearable art reflecting architecture, or assemblages with local artifacts. Stephanie Gress is the Director of Curatorial Affairs for the Suffolk County Vanderbilt Museum in Centerport, New York. A graduate of the State University of New York at Stony Brook with a master's degree in art history, Stephanie believes that visual arts convey the spirit of the time in which they were produced. Objects Found
Juried Show
Tara Leale Porter, Juror
February 15 – March 23, 2019
Opening Reception February 15, 6-8pm

Siddhartha Relic by Tara Leale Porter

Artists are invited to participate in the "Objects Found" exhibition, featuring artwork that incorporates salvaged materials. Consider still lifes, Joseph Cornell's ephemera-filled boxes, Tim Noble's and Sue Webster's discarded item assemblages, Jim Golden's object photography, Jane Perkins' 3D-collage portraits, etc. Use items you've found or collected, twigs, buttons, and antiques to toys, textiles, etc. All media except video can be submitted. Tara Leale Porter of Red Lotus Fused Glass Art creates a narrative in her artwork through a dialogue of materials. She interweaves her fused glass with found objects that have a time-worn patina to construct stories of destruction and regeneration. She has a Bachelor of Fine Arts from Pratt Institute and a Master of Arts in Art Therapy via Hofstra University. For full prospectus go to our website www.huntingtonarts.org.

the Cultural Arts Playhouse on December 7th from 6-8 PM.

Long Island Grants for the Arts

The Huntington Arts Council is proud to administer the arts grants throughout Nassau and Suffolk counties for the New York State Council on the Arts' Decentralization (DEC) program, a regrant program of the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew M. Cuomo and the NYS Legislature. This program is offered in three categories: the Creative Communities grant, which is geared towards growth of the arts in communities, the Creative Learning grant, which is available for in-school and after-school projects; and the Creative Individual grant, extended to the working artist. For more information email Grants for the Arts Coordinator Emily Dowd at grants4arts@huntingtonarts.org or call 631-271-8423 x 18.

2019 Grants

Currently the panels, comprised of a diverse group of professionals with specific expertise, are in the process of deciding on the 2019 recipients. Panelists review applications and prepare recommendations for the Huntington Arts Council's Board of Directors, which has fiduciary responsibility. Staff members are present at the panel meetings to ensure that proper procedures are followed, but do not participate in the deliberations. This new grants timetable will ensure that all applicants will receive notification before the holiday season whether or not they have received funding for the 2019 season.

2018 DEC In the Spotlight

The Creative Communities grants truly bring together the rich cultural landscape Long Island has to offer! These projects connect families to individuals and everything in between to underserved communities that do not have the access to exceptional cultural programming. For more information on projects like these, please reach out to Emily Dowd, Grants for the Arts Coordinator at grants4arts@huntingtonarts.org.

EastLine Theatre's Next Level

The 2018 Decentralization Creative Communities award was instrumental in supporting EastLine's mission and vision. The productions awarded were God Of Vengeance, the play upon which last year's Tony-nominated Indecent is based, the original musical adaptation of Shakespeare's The Tempest titled Prospero (LIVE), and Sam Shepard's Pulitzer prize winning Buried Child. EastLine would have been hard pressed to mount any of these productions without the DEC funding, given the technical and artistic elements required to do so the "EastLine way."

EastLine Theatre is committed to reinventing the classics, exploring modern plays through a new prism, and bringing original works to the attention of the Long Island community. In an intimate black-box space in Wantagh, artists and audiences alike are challenged to step outside of their comfort zones, so they may all be transformed through dynamic stagecraft and uncompromising artistic integrity. Since 2013, EastLine has striven to provide the same quality of theater experienced Off Broadway, only "east" of the city "line." EastLine is focused on mounting productions of plays seldom (if ever) seen on Long Island that have something to say and that speak to typically under-served audiences. EastLine's artistic choices and high production values continue to attract some of the best theater talent locally and has helped cultivate a loyal and growing following of patrons, both young and old.

Splashes of Hope

Splashes of Hope, a 501 (c) (3), was founded in 1996 with the mission to transform facilities 'From Clinical to Colorful. Their team of artists create custom designed hand-painted murals that enhance the environments of hospitals, healthcare centers and social service facilities in over 35 states and throughout the world. The painted scenes are designed to support the healing process by providing a soothing and uplifting visual focus for patients, families and professionals in the recipient facilities.

Splashes of Hope received one of the 2018 Creative Communities Decentralization Program (DEC) grants. The purpose of the grant is to engage the community through art. Splashes of Hope applied for the grant to hold an interactive painting session at the Huntington Tulip Festival in Heckscher Park, where several hundred people and families gathered together in community from all walks of life, cultures, and generations. Children, their parents, grandparents and friends helped paint in the mural along with artists.

The mural will be installed within WellLife Network in Huntington, in the group room for clients struggling with drug and alcohol abuse.

Dance Visions NY

Dance Visions NY, Inc., (dancevisionsny.org), a not-for-profit dance company under the direction of Beth Jucovy, brings the Isadora Duncan artistic legacy into the present. Through presentations of the authentic Isadora Duncan dances as passed on by Jucovy's second-generation mentors as well as through presentation of original works influenced by Duncan principles, the company keeps the legacy and aesthetic of Isadora Duncan strong and relevant in our current world. Dance Visions NY's mission is to enable audiences to experience an emotional, spiritual and intellectual connection to the world of dance. They hope to build and educate dance audiences and are committed to presenting high quality art experiences both locally and beyond.

Dance Visions NY is delighted to have received many NYSCA decentralization grants over the course of its history which has enabled the company to present quality programs locally. The company's 2018 DEC funded project included programs for Cedarmere, Clark Gardens and Sands Point Preserve. Works were presented both indoor and out, and each individual program was created specifically for the environment in which it was performed. Themes often were of nature, both Duncan and original works evoking the elements of water, earth, air and fire.

Fire Island Lighthouse Preservation Society

In 1981, after an application was filed to have the Fire Island Lighthouse transferred from the United States Coast Guard to the National Park Service, the 123 year old Lighthouse is declared irreparable and is slated for demolition. The following year a grass roots movement sees the formation of the Fire Island Lighthouse Preservation Society, which starts a fundraising campaign for the restoration of the Light.

In 2018 the Lighthouse was awarded a Decentralization Creative Communities grant. The funds allowed them to offer art themed programs for almost a full year: children's art programs, workshops and theme days that used the arts to highlight the plight of our environment and it's specialized creatures.

Changing Perceptions: World War I and the Visual Arts

World War I changed the perception of war from a heroic and romanticized point of view to the horrific reality of combat. The perception of what art was and could be was also transformed. This exhibition provides a glimpse into the artistic worlds of France, Germany, and Russia following World War I and examines a selection of the vast activities happening in the visual arts during that time period. The exhibition highlights permanent collection works, including paintings by Conrad Felixmüller, George Grosz, and Georges Rouault; prints by Marc Chagall, Juan Gris, and Käthe Kollwitz; and photographs by August Sander. This exhibition is offered in association with the Hofstra Cultural Center conference "Artistic Expressions and The Great War: A Hundred Years On" held at Hofstra University November 7-9. Free.

A Christmas Story The Musical

Set in the 1940s in the fictional town of Hohman, Indiana, the musical follows 9-year-old Ralphie Parker and his quest for the Holy Grail of Christmas gifts—an Official Red Ryder carbine-action 200-shot Range Model air rifle. The delightfully versatile score ranges from gentle ballads to show-stopping full-ensemble numbers such as "Ralphie to the Rescue!", "A Major Award", "Sticky Situation", "Up on Santa's Lap", "Somewhere Hovering Over Indiana", and the inevitable "You'll Shoot Your Eye Out!". Call for specific show dates and times. Admission: $30 with advance discounts available.

Camelot

Lerner and Loewe's Camelot is the duo's fantastical masterpiece which triumphed on Broadway in a legendary original production that led to a film version and numerous revivals in New York, London, and across the globe. It contains a rich score, boasting such gems as "If Ever I Would Leave You", "I Loved You Once in Silence", "The Lusty Month of May", and, of course, "Camelot". $30 with advance discounts available.

December 1-18 | 8-11pm

Sweet Charity

Inspired by Federico Fellini's Nights of Cabiria, Sweet Charity explores the turbulent love life of Charity Hope Valentine, a romantic but comically unfortunate dance hall hostess in New York City. With a tuneful, groovy, mid-1960s score Sweet Charity captures all the energy, humor, and heartbreak of life in the Big City for an unfortunate but irrepressible optimist. Musical numbers include "Big Spender", "If My Friends Could See Me Now", "There's Gotta Be Something Better Than This", "I'm a Brass Band", and "Baby, Dream Your Dream". $30 with advance discounts available.

Huntington Summer Arts Festival

Meet the Artist Community Engagement Events

This summer we had a broad range of Meet the Artist events conducted in tandem with Huntington Summer Arts Festival concerts. These activities are one of the unique components of the HSAF and were designed as ways to engage with our community and audiences by presenting visiting artists in unique settings and formats. 17 Meet the Artist events took place, serving almost 6,200 individuals. Many events not open to the public were held in smaller venues targeting audiences of students, the elderly or handicapped who may not otherwise be able to attend a concert. Others involve larger audiences enjoying supplemental performances or activities related thematically to an evening performance. Whether a trip to visit the VA Hospital in Northport, to an interactive musical workshop for students, to master class in improvisation for advanced jazz ensemble students at USDAN Summer Camp for the Arts or unplugged music circle in the park, all demonstrate both the artists' efforts as well as HAC's mission to reach out and bring the arts into the larger community.

Family Night Crafts

All new crafts were enjoyed by families and children during this year's 2018 Huntington Summer Arts Festival, Family Nights. Children of all ages were invited to participate in free crafts at the Huntington Arts Council's craft table between 6:00-7:00pm. The crafts were themed around the family night shows including dinosaur hats, handheld parrots, magic carpets and more. Coloring pages were available for younger children. We had such a good time with the children we will be doing it again next year!

Fundamentals of Drawing with Greg Follender

From basic supplies to sophisticated shading techniques, this class covers everything a beginner student needs to draw confidently. The course is designed to introduce all the basic tenets of successful drawing: rendering simple shapes, understanding light and shadow, creating volume, and measuring proportions. Instructor Greg Follender is a New York-based artist/illustrator who has been teaching drawing and sculpting classes at the American Museum of Natural History for almost two decades.

His passionate pursuit of rendering the human form has taken him from the dynamic world of comic books and graphic novels to character design and costume fabrication in film and television. Greg teaches at The Art Students League of New York City. Visit him at www.gregfollender.com. Members: $400, non-members $435.

Colored Pencil: Foundational Techniques with Katrina Benson

Learn the essential techniques for using colored pencils as a fine art medium. Learn about paper supports, supplies, colors, pencil strokes, layering, how to correct and adjust, mixing with other media, and many other tips and techniques. Benson is an award-winning artist working primarily in colored pencil and watercolor. A suggested materials list will be provided. Class started in September. Prorated rates available for remaining classes. Members: $140, non-members: $175.

October 26-28 | 10am-4:30pm

Expressive Pastels: Loosen Up!

Karen Margulis shares with students how to paint in an expressive, loose manner. Students are taught a simple method to start a successful pastel painting. They explore the use of two underpainting techniques. The workshop includes demos, handouts, and plenty of individual help at the easel. $450 Art Guild members, $480 non-members.

November 10 and 11 | 10am-4pm

Simple and Sophisticated Relief Printmaking with Stephanie Navon-Jacobson

Relief printmaking is any technique where parts of the design are cut away (the negative), and the remaining part (the positive), is printed. Ink is applied by using a brayer or roller on the surface and printed by hand. Materials list provided at registration. Artist Stephanie Navon-Jacobson is always observing the world around her and taking inspiration from nature. She considers herself a printmaker who paints, rather than a painter who prints. Navon-Jacobson enjoys working with people who are new to printmaking, as well as teaching experienced artists techniques. Please register by November 1 to ensure that workshop will run. Members: $160, non-members: $195.

determine the relationship of human beings to one another across time and space. Whitman's ideas influenced many painters and artists. Spend three Sunday afternoons exploring how Whitman's "Leaves of Grass" shaped and influenced the artists of the 19th and 20th centuries. Consider the work of "Whitmanian" painters Thomas Eakins, Jean-Francois Millet, Vincent Van Gogh, William Sidney Mount, and Georgia O'Keeffe. This workshop involves discussion and creating original works of art. Painting with acrylics and multimedia materials, as well as "plein air" painting are explored. Materials are provided for the first class. Appropriate for those in high school and older. Call for pricing information.

Huntington Summer Arts Festival - A Memorable Summer Season

The 53rd Huntington Summer Arts Festival (HSAF) enjoyed a rousing conclusion with performances by Celtic fusion, Trad/Roots & Rock group Skerryvore from Scotland on August 10, and an evening of Cajun/Creole jambalaya with BeauSoleil avec Michael Doucet on August 12. (Even Saturday's cancellation/rainout of jazz harp virtuoso Edmar Castaneda couldn't dampen the enthusiasm of closing weekend audiences.) Once again, the Festival's schedule of music, dance and entertainment raced by at a dizzying pace – 42 concerts on the Chapin Rainbow Stage plus five more at the Robert W. Krueger Bandstand in Northport Harbor; something different each night over a span of 7 weeks from June 26 - Aug. 12.

The HSAF is an extraordinary gift from the Town of Huntington to its residents and the entire L.I. community; admission is free to all who venture out and attend. It provides opportunities to see and hear superb artists (more than 1,350 this summer), both local and from across the U.S. and around the globe, representing an eclectic mix of musical genres and performing arts disciplines. No other Festival on Long Island brings so much variety and world-class talent to the region. The Huntington Arts Council is proud of its stewardship and privileged to curate and present this remarkable Festival.

There are so many to thank for making the Festival such a special event. We thank the Town Council for its support, and the Department of Parks & Recreation, General Services and Public Safety. We also thank the County of Suffolk, the New York State Council on the Arts (NYSCA), and the Mid Atlantic Arts Foundation. Special thanks to Presenting Sponsor Canon, USA for its continued commitment. Thank you to our Concert Sponsors: Daniel Gale Sotheby's, Folk Music Society of Huntington, Philips Boyne, Start To Finish Remodeling & Handyman and Weber Law Group; In-kind Supporters: D'Addario & Co., King Kullen, Konig & Meyer/Connolly Music, Korg USA, Samson/Hartke and Bob Murphy's Violin Shop.

Our deepest gratitude is due to all the talented touring artists and ensembles who graced the Chapin Rainbow Stage; to the immensely skilled and hard-working technical staff who make it all seem so effortless; the SummerScape Volunteers without whose devotion and time we could not operate; and the volunteer photographers from the Huntington Camera Club for helping us document the concerts. A special shout-out to HAC's Arts in Education Coordinator Regina Van Bell for the great craft projects prior to each Tuesday Family Show! HAC's Board of Directors and dedicated staff are gratefully recognized and appreciated. Partners in presenting merit additional recognition, including the Folk Music Society of Huntington, the Friends of the Coltrane Home, plus the Musicians Performance Trust Foundation for its support of the Long Island Orchestra. Performing organizations and ensembles meriting both high praise and appreciation include the Huntington Community Band, the Northport Community Band, the Long Island Dance Consortium, Plaza Theatrical Productions, BroadHollow Theatre Productions and the many other local artists and ensembles who devote their time and energy to superb performances.

Last and certainly not least, the success and longevity of the Huntington Summer Arts Festival would not be possible without the support of you, our audience. You've shown you care about live performances by attending, enjoying and applauding the artistry you are witness to for more than fifty years now. A huge THANKS to you the public!

Captured by Canon. Protected by Canon.

Canon technologies help capture beautiful images just like this one, and our conservation initiatives help protect our environment. In 1990, Canon introduced a cartridge recycling program and began to incorporate recycled materials into our manufacturing processes, helping to keep waste and hazardous substances out of landfills. By designing more than 200 products that meet the high standards of ENERGY STAR® and partnering with SmartWay®, we work to reduce our carbon footprint and minimize our impact on the environment. Social responsibility is more than being a conservation leader — it's seeing the big picture.

See the big picture and how Canon is committed to protecting our world.
