From the Executive Director

MARC COURTAIDE
Executive Director
Huntington Arts Council

It is encouraging to live and work in an area that supports, values and encourages the arts. I applaud our elected officials...town, county and state... who support the arts. I urge anyone passionate about the arts to let their elected officials know how much the arts mean to Huntington and the Long Island community, and thank them for their continued support and funding.

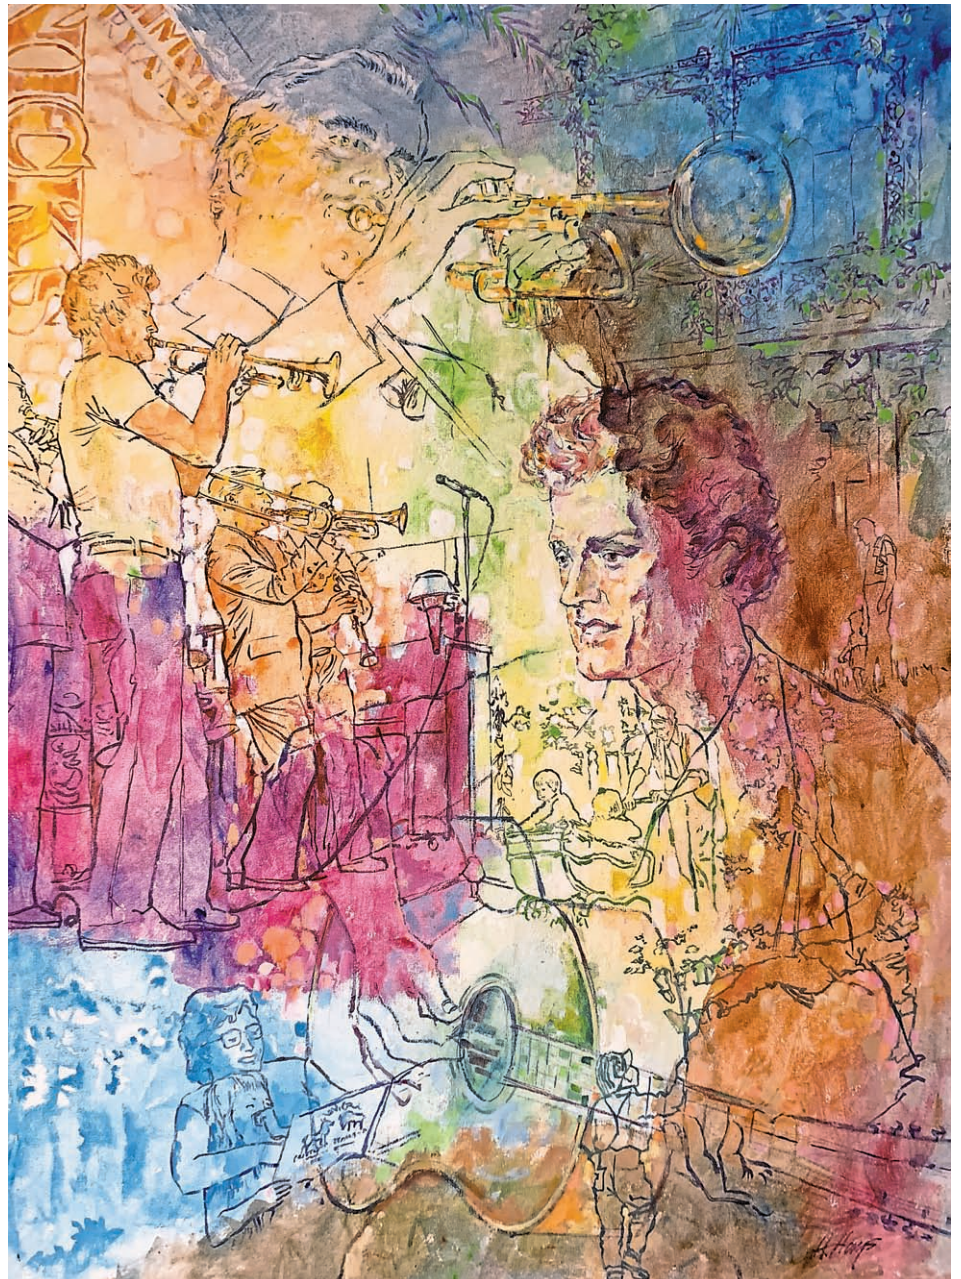

Along with public support, we rely on the generosity of individuals to help us to continue our programming. We thank all of our donors to our year end annual appeal campaign and On the Block, Art Auction. Our Annual Benefit will be held at Coindre Hall on April 2, honoring Asia Lee with the Harry and Sandy Chapin Arts and Humanitarian Award in recognition of her contributions to the arts and the Long Island community. We will also honor The Huntington Community Band (celebrating its 75th Anniversary!) and Kevin F. Harrington of Plaza Theatrical Productions each with the Harry and Sandy Chapin Legacy Award to commemorate their services to the arts. For more information on our honorees go to huntingtonarts.org. The arts continue to prosper and be available for all to enjoy, and these awardees are helping ensure that happens.

HAC's programming continues to offer a variety of arts and cultural events. Our JOURNEY program nurtures the arts in our eight partner school districts. The High Arts Showcase in March will be a chance to see these works (both visual and performance) of the next generation of artists. Our Main Street Gallery will also showcase a variety of visual arts exhibits, throughout the spring, while our Gallery Events continue to help artists and organizations expand their horizons: Singer Songwriter Nights, Conversations in the Arts and Arts Administrator Forums. The NYSCA Decentralization Grants for the Arts program has wrapped up its panel deliberations, and successful applicants will receive funding to help them continue to add to the arts landscape of Long Island. Plans are underway for the 2020 Huntington Summer Arts Festival. This newsletter showcases a myriad of performances and exhibitions across all genres. Please treat yourself to as many arts experiences as you can.

MARC COURTAIDE

Mystery Artist

Many of our visitors at HAC comment on this painting, which is displayed in the vestibule. The painting was donated to HAC in the early 1980s and celebrates the Huntington Summer Arts Festival, with Harry Chapin and Ken Butterfield clearly the main focus of the piece. The signature appears to be "H. Hayes." This is the only information we have on the painting. We are trying to establish the full identity of the artist, and history of the work. If anyone can help us with documentation of the piece, please contact us at info@huntingtonarts.org.

Thank you.

From the Supervisor

CHAD A. LUPINACCI
Supervisor Town of Huntington

Welcome! As winter begins to fade and we begin to anticipate the warmer weather as spring approaches, the Town of Huntington will be home to multiple cultural events. Our arts and cultural offerings are the reason Huntington is known as "Long Island's Culture Capital."

Huntington's literary heritage began with the birth of one of our country's greatest poets on May 31, 1819, in West Hills. Walt Whitman was most famous for his collection of self-published poetry entitled Leaves of Grass. To celebrate Huntington's famous icon, the Town continues to devote our resources on creativity in motion with HartArt, a program in conjunction with the Walt Whitman Birthplace and the Heckscher Museum of Art's Long Island's Best Young Artists program. This initiative showcases the best in poetry and art from high school students. For more information please visit: www.heckscher.org.

April showers bring May flowers, and the annual Tulip Festival in Huntington Village. Taking place on Sunday, May 3, 2020 from 11AM – 4 PM, rain or shine at Hecksher Park. The Tulip Festival is a family-oriented celebration featuring more than 20,000 tulips, hands-on children's activities, family-friendly performances on the Chapin Rainbow Stage, art exhibitions, lectures, demonstrations, and refreshment booths. For additional event information visit: huntingtonny.gov/TulipFestival

These are just a few highlights the rich culture the Town of Huntington has to offer. For additional Town events throughout the season, please visit the calendar at huntingtonny.gov/calendar or the Town's Facebook event listings at facebook.com/HuntingtonNewYork.

Janice Buckner: Songs & Puppetry

20th Annual Tulip Festival

You won't want to miss all the fun at the 20th Annual Tulip Festival, Sunday, May 3, 2020 - 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at Heckscher Park, Huntington. It's the perfect family event, with live music, art exhibits, free children's activity - arts & crafts, wildlife, face-painting, refreshments booths and the beautiful tulips which fill the park with signs of spring.

Performance Venue

Chapin Rainbow Stage
Heckscher Park: Park Ave & Main Street
Huntington, NY 11743

Performance Schedule:

(Subject to change)

12:00 noon to 12:45 p.m. -
Janice Buckner: Songs & Puppetry

1:00 - 1:45 p.m. -
Li Liu - Traditions of Chinese Acrobatics

2:15 - 3:00 p.m. - The Fuzzy Lemons

The Huntington Tulip Festival is produced by The Town of Huntington; Chapin Rainbow Stage Performances presented by the Huntington Arts Council.

Chapin Rainbow Stage Performances:

Janice Buckner is one of the top performing artists for children, entertaining audiences of all ages. Songs & Puppetry highlights her original songs, guitar playing and puppets. Janice appears on television, in concert halls and schools. Her Learn Along Song Series and Creativity in the Classroom Work/Play Book are used in pre-k and elementary schools throughout the country.

Li Liu - Traditions of Chinese Acrobatics is a one-woman acrobatic performance that is entertaining, instructive and interactive! Li Liu performs hand balancing, artistic cycling, plate spinning, ribbon dancing, diabolos and foot juggling. Born in Northeast China, Li was trained in Chinese acrobatics and has toured the world, including stints with Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey Circus.

The Fuzzy Lemons return to Huntington with laugh out-loud lyrics and memorable melodies, where every song tells a story and every show is full of infectious energy. So tune up your air guitars and get ready to rock, jump, wiggle, and shake.

Internships

The Huntington Arts Council offers valuable work experience and volunteer opportunities for college and high school students year-round. The experiences we provide range from career focused internships which can support guidelines for academic credit, to volunteer activities, and assisting with general office tasks.

Thank you to our Fall 2019 intern - Steven Prestia of LIU Post

"As an Arts Management major at LIU Post, it was insightful to see the inner workings of a non-profit arts organization. The people here are incredibly warm and welcoming. I did not feel like an intern, I felt like a valued member of the team. I have learned a great deal about Arts Administration, Grants for the Arts, Gallery Shows as well as Arts in Education. I plan on writing my college thesis about the grants landscape of Long Island, which I would not have discovered had it not been for HAC. This was an excellent experience and I encourage any student looking into non-profit arts management to check out this organization". - SP

Spring 2020 - Internships:

Arts Management / Development Intern - This internship is targeted to a student interested in learning about arts administration, specifically with regards to grants and development. The intern will assist the Development Director in preparing for the annual fundraising event as well as in grants research for future funding opportunities.

Arts Festival Production & Administrative Intern - The primary responsibility for a motivated student intern is to assist the Performing Arts Director in administration and production of the 2020 Huntington Summer Arts Festival. The timing of this internship is from March through mid-May of 2020.

Public Relations and Marketing Intern The college intern will work directly with Director of Public Relations & Marketing with hands on experience including but not limited to, promotion, press, website, social media, analytics and general communications responsibilities.

For more information, complete internship descriptions and applications go to huntingtonarts.org/support. Questions, contact: Regina Van Bell, Arts in Education Coordinator, artsined@huntingtonarts.org 631-271-8423 ext 14

"Recycling II" by Anahi DeCanio

Lisa L. Cangemi of C&C Graphic Design won two graphic design awards from Graphic Design USA for art direction and design. She was honored with a solo exhibition at the Long Beach Art League at Magnolia Senior Center in November.

Anahi DeCanio was awarded Second Place for "Recycling II" at the National Art League "Black White & Green" Show, which opened in October.

Angela Stratton received an Honorable Mention Award for her oil painting, "Life's Phases", in the "39th Setauket Artists Exhibition 2019", located in the historical Neighborhood House in Setauket.

Karen L. Kirshner received the Award of Excellence at the Art League of Long Island's "Membership Exhibition" for her painting "Red Scene 3". She was also inducted to the National Association of Women's Artists at The Rubin Museum of Art and has a painting on display at the NAWA Gallery. Kirshner received the Bronze Medal for her painting "Red Scene (1)" at the National Art League in Douglaston.

Ann Parry's "Buzz Aldrin" photograph won first place in The Art Guild's "About Face: The Portrait" juried competition. It's part of her ongoing series of photographs of astronauts and other space notables at Cradle of Aviation Museum and in New York City.

The Suffolk County Vanderbilt Museum has been reaccruited by the American Alliance of Museums. AAM accreditation is the highest national recognition awarded to a museum, and of the estimated 33,000 museums in the United States, only 3.25 percent are currently accredited.

The Huntington Choral Society sponsored a Rising Star Competition for high school student singers. The winning students, Christopher Leigh from Port Jefferson and Kassidy Reider from Lindenhurst, each performed a solo aria in the society's winter concert, "Opera Extravaganza," and received a $100 Honorarium.

Toxic/Nature Studios by Scott Schneider has an iPhone photography and sculpture exhibition at the Coral Springs Museum of Art (Florida) through May 19. Toxic/Nature Studios features environmental artwork that celebrates nature and laments its demise in small moments. Toxic/Nature Studios is also exhibiting a series of photographs at the Arizona State University's School of Sustainability through the end of May.

Holly Gordon's "Antarctica: Journey to the Extreme" and "Galapagos: Face to Face" bodies of work have been acquired by Molloy College for its permanent collection. Additionally, Gordon's Dove/Torr Cottage photographs will be included in a book of historic artist homes published by Princeton University Press.

Gail Swedberg recently won three design awards from the Graphic Design USA 2019 Health + Wellness Design Awards Competition™ for print/marketing design. This competition's 2,400 entries resulted in 150 winning pieces.

Michael Kornfeld, president of the Folk Music Society of Huntington and organizer of the annual Huntington Folk Festival, was re-elected to a fourth term as president of the board of directors of the Northeast Regional Folk Alliance.

2020 Huntington Summer Arts Festival Preview

2020 will mark the 55th Huntington Summer Arts Festival and feature an exciting roster of touring artists plus superbly talented local ensembles performing on the Chapin Rainbow Stage in Heckscher Park. "The Festival is the Town of Huntington's gift to the cultural life of Long Island," according to Performing Arts Director John Chicherio. "It is the largest and most extensive FREE ADMISSION festival on L.I., and renowned for the rich assortment of artists and ensembles who perform and the eclectic mix of genres. It is unlike any other summer festival in the region, an annual feast of Music, Dance and Musical Theatre."

"We have just begun the process of weaving together this exciting assortment of live entertainment," Mr. Chicherio states. "We can't disclose artists until we have signed contracts in place." He explained. "Even at this early date however, we know we'll celebrate several important milestones and have a few surprises in store." Important celebrations will include the Huntington Community Band's 75th Anniversary over five consecutive Wednesdays in July, as well as the 15th Annual Huntington Folk Festival in collaboration with the Folk Music Society of Huntington. "We are also in discussions about observing Beethoven's 250th Birthday with the Orchestra L.I. and exploring ways to honor the 100th Anniversary of Women's Suffrage and ratification of the 19th Amendment", Chicherio added.

All HSAF concerts are FREE admission, open to all, and presented at the Chapin Rainbow Stage in Heckscher Park at Prime Ave. & Main Street. (The Northport Community Band performs five consecutive concerts Thursday evenings at the Robert F. Krueger Band Shell in Northport Harbor.) Tuesdays feature a Family Show beginning at 7:00 PM, perfect for all ages. Come at 6:00 PM for a fun, easy FREE craft for the children. All performances on other nights will begin at 8:00 PM.

More information on the 2020 Festival will be available at huntingtonarts.org

The HSAF is produced by the Town of Huntington and presented by the Huntington Arts Council. The Board of Directors and the Staff at HAC express their sincere appreciation to the Town Council for their support and for making this program possible. The Festival is also supported by grants from the County of Suffolk, made possible by the support of Governor Andrew M. Cuomo and the New York State Legislature, and by corporate and public contributions.

2020 Long Island Grants for the Arts

The Huntington Arts Council is delighted to report that the 2020 Decentralization Re-Grant Program has had another successful year. We received 106 applications for funding, roughly the same as the requests for 2019. The total funding requested this cycle increased $32,481 to a record $454,523. This figure reflects more than double the $202,500 we have to offer through this re-grant program. With all of the wonderful projects that were submitted and not enough funds for all of them, very difficult decisions were made throughout the awardee process. The Huntington Arts Council urges our artists and arts organizations to reach out to their senate and assembly members to request an increase in funding for the New York State Council on the Arts. An increase in funding would help to improve the cultural landscape and keep Long Island at the forefront of artistic expression in New York State.

Project review panels took place in October, and the awardees for the 2020 Decentralization Re-Grant cycle have been chosen. Congratulations to all of the awardees for their groundbreaking and highly artistic projects! The total number of applicants we were able to fund for the 2020 Decentralization cycle is 79.

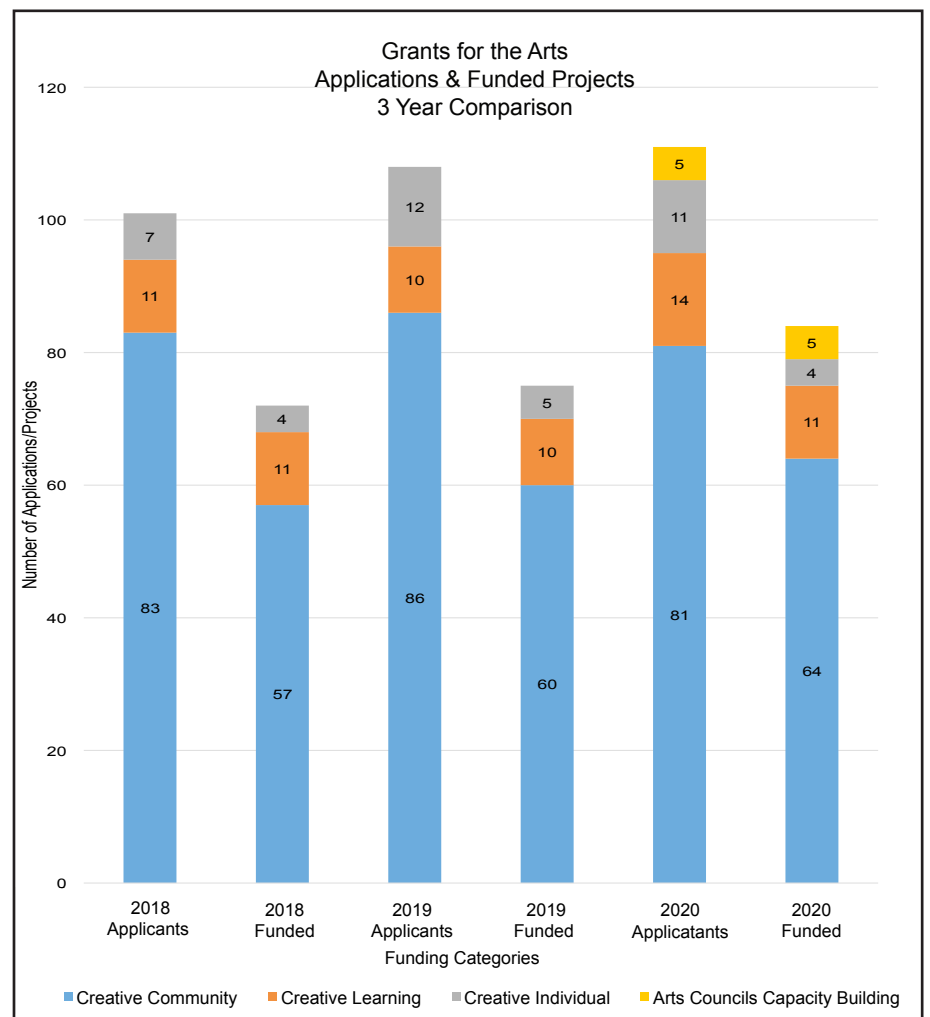

Additionally, HAC has worked with NYSCA to offer a pilot funding program for Long Island Arts Councils. This Capacity Building program is available for Arts Councils that do not receive direct NYSCA support. This review panel met in early December and awarded $7,500 to five applicants, making an overall combined total of grants distributed to 84 out of the 111 applicants.

We would like to thank our 2020 panelists for their input into the process. Without your exceptional skills, the decisions would have not made as successful as they were. The panelists for the 2020 season were:

Lauren Ausubel, René Bouchard, Diane Burke, Daniel Coners, Loretta Corbisiero, Kristin Cuomo, Anahi DeCanio, Angelo Fraboni, Beth Giacommo, Joe Jankowski, Marc Josloff, Julie Lyon, Elizabeth Mirarchi, Therese Nielson, Eileen Palmer, Nancy Richer, Dr. Nichelle Rivers, Jude Schanzer, Meg Sexton, Cynthia Shor, Joanne Spencer, Susanna Stickley, John Torres and Ama Karikari-Yawson.

Grant opportunities are available annually for arts and cultural organizations and individual artists in Nassau and Suffolk Counties. Grants range from $500-$5,000 dollars. Funds are made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts (NYSCA) Decentralization Program with the support of Governor Andrew M. Cuomo and the New York State Legislature. For more information email Grants for the Arts Coordinator Emily Dowd at grants4arts@huntingtonarts.org or call 631-271-8423 x 18.

April 17 – May 30, 2020
Opening Reception April 17, 6-8pm

The Eve of Your Labors by Christophe Lima.

Corpuscle Resolution by Kristen Tinari

The Ascending Woman by Scott Ross

Christophe Lima uses a psychological theorem developed by Carl Jung called Shadow Work to examine the dark side of identity, humanity, femininity, and her environment. Her work is always gritty, honest, and emotionally driven. She understands that to live fully, to be full, we must, at times, gaze into the abyss. Christophe earned her BFA with Honors from The Fashion Institute of Technology. She shows work in the New York/Long Island area.

Kristen Tinari always had a strong interest for color and discovery of her physical surroundings. Throughout her studies towards her BFA at the University of Delaware, she worked with a variety of mixed medias and explored the physical application of paint. A specific project, the macro vs. micro, sparked Kristen's interest in the cellular form and research behind it. Intrigued by this topic, specifically autoimmune diseases she explores it in various forms of painting. Kristen's work has been exhibited in group exhibitions in Wilmington, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, and Long Island. She was the receipt of the Lynn Sharp Award at the University of Delaware in 2013.

Scott Ross is a self-taught photographer, self-employed portrait and event photographer since 1975. His subject matter focuses on the female form.

JOURNEY Arts in Ed Program

JOURNEY has been Huntington Arts Council's successful school program since 1985, promoting cultural understanding and appreciation through the arts. JOURNEY is an impactful arts in education program in part because participation is chosen by district administrators and facilitated by school liaisons.

District liaisons work closely with the Arts in Education Coordinator ensuring that valuable information about the components of the program filter down to the teachers. The JOURNEY Arts in Education Coordinator maintains communication with the teachers in the classroom, but it is initiated through the district administrator. This is most often the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction or the leader in the arts department such as the arts chairperson or director. The overall success of the program is supported by the cooperation of teachers, school staff, PTA, as well as, support staff.

JOURNEY has multiple elements; CTLE Cultural Arts Workshops, Discovery Chests, High Arts Showcase, and in school Visiting Artists, all described here. Additional information is available at huntingtonarts.org. The individual pieces of JOURNEY create the framework for this district-wide program, integrating culture and art to provide a more inclusive understanding of how we interact with the world. The inclusion of the program in the schools also facilitates community collaborations. This may be through special events at the Huntington Arts Council such as Arts Administrator Forums or Conversations in the Arts. With involvement from dedicated administrators promoting and supporting JOURNEY's quality arts in education components, we work together to add value in the JOURNEY partner schools.

The value of the partnership, has been demonstrated through the ongoing relationship with Huntington High School and JOURNEY partner school administrator, Director of Fine and Performing Arts, Eric Reynolds. As a devoted administrator, musician, and educator, Mr. Reynolds has been an enthusiastic proponent of the JOURNEY program and continued collaborations in and outside of educational programming for years. From being a moderator for our Conversations in the Arts panel, to highlighting student talent at our annual fundraisers, Mr. Reynolds has been a willing and devoted supporter of his students, and the community.

Recently Mr. Reynolds shared his thoughts on how the JOURNEY program supports cultural arts programming in Huntington schools.

The Huntington school district has enjoyed a long-lasting partnership with Huntington Arts Council's JOURNEY Program and collaborated to develop new initiatives. Year after year, some of our best student artists are provided the opportunity to showcase their work in a professional gallery in the High Arts Showcase. Just last year, we worked together to produce a High Arts Music Performance Showcase to allow our wonderful student musicians to share their talents with the greater community. Teachers across all grades and disciplines have taken advantage of the Discovery Lending Chests. Participation has remained steady across the district and the connection to the materials in the chests has enhanced classroom projects and curriculum. Thanks to the close proximity of the Arts Council, many of our teachers attend a variety of professional learning workshops throughout the year. Being a JOURNEY partner has also allowed our district to welcome visiting artists and performers to our schools as part of our Arts-In-Education program. Through these performances, district students are exposed to fine art, literature, dance, and musical theater. It has been and remains a pleasure and privilege to work alongside the Huntington Arts Council and it is exciting to think about future initiatives and experiences that we, together, can provide our students to expose them to a variety of art forms and connect those with their lives in and out of school. – Eric Reynolds, Liaison for the JOURNEY Arts in Education program.

We'd like to graciously thank Mr. Reynolds and all the district liaisons that support JOURNEY year round. The 2019-2020 JOURNEY Program participating school districts include: Cold Spring Harbor, Commack, Harborfields, Huntington, Kings Park, Northport-East Northport, Plainview-Old Bethpage and South Huntington.

Program Components CTLE Cultural Arts Workshops

The Cultural Arts Workshops are CTLE certified professional development opportunities for teachers using arts as the starting point to learn about the history, traditions, social systems, and economics of a culture, led by indigenous artists, scholars and educators. This past fall there were five workshops with a total of 121 attendees.

- Multicultural Voices – Celebrating and Empowering ENL Students.
Elise May, presenter

- "The Path is Made by Walking" – Using Proverbs to Develop Cross-Cultural Competence in the Classroom.
Patty Eljaiek, presenter

- Culture Shapes Dance –
Kendra Mace Clark, presenter

- Aussie Funk Jam Teacher Workshop (Didgeridoo Techniques, History, and Australian Culture)
Rob Thomas, presenter

- Cultural Connections Using African Inspired Masks
Gina Mars, presenter

Each workshop represented an arts discipline such as theater, music, dance and visual arts intertwined with cultural understandings. Following each presentation, the teachers receive a survey to evaluate the experience and explain how they will apply what they learned in their own classrooms.

Discovery Lending Chests

Discovery chests bring hands on cultural experiences to students with the use of artifacts, lessons, books, artworks, musical instruments and other tools. Lending chests for the following cultures are available for loan: Ancient Egypt, Africa, China, Greece, India, Latin America, and Native America. "Mini" chests with artifacts and description cards for Russia and Japanese Tea Ceremony are also available, but are still under development.

Visiting Artists

Visiting teaching artists from a variety of cultures and artistic genres are available for workshops, residencies and assemblies in the schools. A directory of artists is available.

High Arts Showcase

Student artists from JOURNEY partner schools are given the exclusive opportunity to present their talents in the Huntington Arts Council Main Street Gallery with participation in a visual art exhibition and/or performance night event. The cover of this newspaper features works from four of the talented high school students participating in this year's exhibition. These unique events enable students to learn firsthand what is involved throughout the exhibition and performance experience; from submitting entries, writing bios and/or artist statements as well as interaction with the arts community.

For more information on the JOURNEY Program go to huntingtonarts.org or contact Arts in Education Coordinator, Regina Van Bell at artsined@huntingtonarts.org.

April 25 and 26, 10:30am – 4:30pm | "Floral Still Life in Pastel Workshop" with Jane McGraw | This workshop provides an understanding of the concepts and techniques of pastel painting. An introductory demonstration explores the use of underpaintings and how they contribute to more expressive work. Emphasis is on simplifying forms, depth of space, line quality, composition, and color value. Members: $250. Non-members: $285.

May 15 – 17 | "A Modern Approach to Watercolor Workshop" with Antonio Masi | Workshop focuses on how to approach watercolor from a contemporary point of view. Watercolor is a powerful, emotional, and expressive medium. Masi applies watercolor in a thick manner. Learn unusual perspectives, attention to detail, and how to create moody works. Members: $350. Non-members: $380.
