From the Executive Director

KIERAN JOHNSON
Executive Director
Huntington Arts Council

Hello Community,

As I begin my first year as the new Executive Director of the Huntington Arts Council, entering the 59th year of programming, and 57th annual Huntington Summer Arts festival, I think it's important to restate our commitment to the community, and build upon past and future partnerships across Long Island.

We've seen continued support from long time partnerships such as the Town of Huntington whose backing allows us to present the Huntington Summer Arts festival and publish this Arts and Cultural News. New York State Council on the Arts continues to entrust us with the invaluable regrant program year after year. Our a partner school districts within the JOURNEY program continue to entrust us to supply cultural learning with visiting artists, discovery chests and CTLE teacher training. As always, we need to recognize our Suffolk County legislators for their continued support of our many programs.

We have been united with new community partners like Michael Smith and his team at The Agency to present artists such as Joseph Santarpia. For the last year, Lielu has continued to feature an HAC artist member quarterly in their upstairs dining room. Recently we've been working with Lithology Brewery and Colored Colors on a very fun project with custom canned designs commissioning local artists. These past couple of months we have been fortunate to offer Next Chapter LI our gallery to assist an independent bookstore to reopen in the Huntington Village after the closure of Book Revue.

I'm looking forward to this next year and experiencing this community grow, and seeing the Huntington Arts Council rededicate ourselves to you. HAC's team will be working on a professional development program and see an increase in funding for REGRANTS both at your suggestion. We will continue to present the Summer Arts Festival with FREE family friendly, all-inclusive entertainment as requested by you.

HAC is your local, community based, arts agency, and we are dedicated to you. So please come down to the Main Street Gallery at 213 main Street for a conversation, sign up for our social media to see what's coming up next, and where will be throughout the island. This summer make sure to "never miss a Sunday show" in Heckscher Park at the Harry Chapin Rainbow Stage.

I look forward to seeing everyone out and enjoying the arts in this community that HAC shares with you.

Tributes

Anthony LaMarca

Anthony LaMarca Suburban Art League's (SAL) president, and artist in his own right, passed away suddenly in September. As a tribute to a man who was instrumental in bringing arts into the community SAL had a memorial event in Tony's honor. Funds raised during this tribute will be dedicated to an Anthony LaMarca Life Tribute cash award which will be given at SAL's annual member exhibits in Tony's memory. HAC has fond memories of Tony and we always enjoyed our phone conversations with him detailing the variety of artist's opportunities he was so proud to provide to our local communities.

Anthony LaMarca Suburban Art League's (SAL) president, and artist in his own right, passed away suddenly in September. As a tribute to a man who in all she did. HAC was privileged to know her. As a long time member she was an active volunteer, panelist, note taker and frequently attended our events. Charlotte's generosity to the HAC staff was filled with surprises when we all went to see her perform at the Bare Bones Theater, just to find out that she had treated us to the tickets!

Anthony and Charlotte will be greatly missed.

Charlotte Paula Koons, a beloved member of the community recently passed away. A longtime, devoted teacher in the Northport School District, her accomplishments and dedication to the arts and her local community are well documented. Charlotte's vibrancy for life was evident

From the Supervisor

EDMUND J. SMYTH
Supervisor Town of Huntington

Dear Friends,

Welcome to "Long Island's Cultural Capital!" The Town of Huntington takes great pride in being the home to artists and musicians, as well as great cultural events like our Summer Concert Series at the Chapin Rainbow Stage in Heckscher Park.

Summer is a season that is always full of arts and cultural activities, and the Town of Huntington helps to ensure that there are many free and low-cost opportunities for cultural enrichment and entertainment close to home, starting with the free Summer Concert Series in Heckscher Park. A perennial favorite, Huntington's Summer Arts Festival – now in its 57th year – has performances scheduled weekly, Tuesday through Sunday, from June 24th through August 7th on Heckscher Park's Chapin Rainbow Stage, with additional Thursday evening concerts by the Northport Community Band at the Robert W. Krueger Bandstand in Village Park in Northport.

Kicking off Friday, June 24th with jazz vocalist Cyrille Aimee, the 2022 Summer Arts Festival presents a family show every Tuesday, with a variety of acts from the Huntington Folk Festival on July 16th featuring Paula Cole and Sophie B. Hawkins, to Women in Jazz Week July 19th through July 24th, Swingtime Big Band on July 31st, closing out with the country swing stylings of Bumper Jackson on August 7th.

In addition to the Summer Arts Festival's regular "Family Night" performances on Tuesdays, we have new recreational fun planned for residents and families, including musical entertainment and a cultural program beloved by families – the free "Movies" series hosted by the Town, which will expand to new locations! A complete listing of the dates, locations, and scheduled movies can be found in this newspaper or by calling our Department of Parks and Recreation at 631-351-3089. Follow the Town of Huntington and our Department of Parks and Recreation on social media for exciting updates! Also be sure to make your way to Heckscher Museum, one of the great gems here in Town for their summer offerings. Check the listings in this newspaper or visit www.Heckscher.org for more information.

These are highlights of just a few of the most popular offerings. For additional listings of diverse cultural opportunities throughout the Town browse the pages of this newspaper and discover the cultural treasures in your own "backyard."

Melodious Memories by Tiffany Asadourian

In our efforts to expand the visual arts component of the HSAF will be bringing back last years "Fence Project". A series of large banners will be displayed around the perimeter of the enclosed audience viewing area. The banners will feature work from our artists' members who submitted festival inspired pieces for our cover call for the summer issue of our Arts Cultural News. Able to only include one piece on the cover, the "Fence Project" enables us to share these vibrant, exciting pieces with the public.

Arts in Education JOURNEY

The Huntington Arts Council's JOURNEY Arts in Education Program has been working with local school districts to support cultural arts programs in schools since 1985. Our 8 partner school districts schedule artist presentations, borrow discovery chests, participate in the exclusive student art exhibition – High Arts Showcase and our CTLE teacher professional development courses. This year our partner districts were Cold Spring Harbor, Commack, Harborfields, Huntington, Kings Park, Northport-East Northport, Plainview-Old Bethpage and South Huntington.

CTLE CULTURAL ARTS WORKSHOPS

HAC is a sponsor for New York State Department of Education and provides CTLE (Continuing Teaching and Learning Education) hours as required for teaching certificate holders in New York State. These professional development opportunities embody the goals of the JOURNEY Program that strive to promote cultural appreciation in schools through the arts.

This fall CTLE workshops will be offered in October/November of 2022. The workshops are free for our partner school districts and available to other teachers in New York State for a fee of $50.00. Go to huntingtonarts.org for information and class registration.

VISITING ARTISTS

Partner schools are allocated funds to book Visiting Artists representing a variety of cultures for workshops, residencies and assemblies in their schools.

Virtual Whalers and Whaling Program with Scrimshaw Box Craft by Cold Spring Harbor Whaling Museum was recently presented at Washington Primary, Flower Hill

Primary, Southdown Primary and Jefferson Primary. This program explored the lives of the 19th century whalers and the importance of whaling in American history, especially on Long Island. The third grade students learned the how, why, and when of whale hunting through this virtual exploration of the Cold Spring Harbor Whaling Museum's galleries. The students examined nautical artifacts and the need for whale conservation today. The students tried carving a scrimshaw box, based on the classic folk craft of whalers.

Mr. Edward's 3rd grade class at Flower Hill

Discovery Chests

Discovery Chests include google slides containing artifact descriptions and internet resources. With more than 30 physical discovery chests on hand and 10 different world cultures represented. Partner schools have continued to take advantage of these loans through the end of the school year.

High Arts Showcase

In March the exclusive student art exhibition, High Arts Showcase XVIII, presented a superb body of work from 11th and 12th grade students in our JOURNEY partner schools. These students learn firsthand what is involved in a gallery exhibition; from submitting entries and writing an artist statement to titling, framing and pricing their artwork. Four pieces of artwork sold during the exhibition with full proceeds going to the student. Congratulations to the students that presented their work and to those that were awarded honors.

VISITING ARTISTS

Icons of the Hindu Texts as Superheroes by Anu Annam was presented virtually at Plainview - Old Bethpage Middle School.

Ancient Indian epics offer a dramatic tapestry of engaging mythology, ripe with characters possessing divine powers. These stories imbue the culture with its values, similar to how Superhero lore reflects and shapes American culture. This workshop is a synergy of Superhero comics, Hindu religious texts and the power of art as a learning tool. It harnesses students' interest in Superhero stories and the comic medium to introduce the Hindu texts through comparative study. Through an interactive presentation and a teacher-led art project, concepts such as Reincarnation, Ahimsa, Moksha, Dharma and Karma - influential tenets of Hindu Indian culture - will be compared and contrasted with Western Superhero ethics, making them relatable and easily comprehensible to the American student.

Mr. Poplawski, 5th grade Art class

"Each of the two programs were great. The students loved to receive a one-on-one feel through the zoom workshop. The ability for them to feel as if the artist was teaching them personally inspired them much more than a live in class workshop. I can't wait to schedule more for the future." - Daniel Poplawski, Art Teacher

Brush Painting

Chinese Calligraphy and Brush Painting by Sungsook Setton at Plainview - Old Bethpage Middle School.

In this virtual program students worked closely with this master brush painter. The artist engaged students in discussion of the properties of paper, ink, water and simple philosophy of Chinese painting technique. Students learned to create in this great tradition and brought home multiple artworks and understanding of the differences between Asian art techniques and Western.

Scholarships Awards 2022

Benjamin Schlaich of Northport High School/ LIHSA is the 2022 recipient of The Joan Aboff Memorial Art Scholarship. His winning digital work "Meld" is featured here.

Benjamin's statement in part states, "Art has allowed me to look at the things around me from new perspectives. Before I learned art, all I knew was myself, but I did not know my voice. I knew how to speak, but never how to express myself truly...Learning to create has allowed me to be brave, and a more well-rounded communicator. Art is the ultimate form of communication, as it shows values, perspectives, and opinions all in one large chunk. And this willingness to communicate at such a level with anyone who can participate in the artwork is incredibly fascinating to me...I want to be able to make an impact and remind people of the wonders of the things around them."

Meld by Benjamin Schlaich

This is a visual arts scholarship for a 4 week session to Usdan; Summer Camp for the Arts for 11th and 12th grade students living in the town of Huntington. The scholarship is funded by the Aboff family.

The dance scholarship winners, one each for the Rea Jacob Scholarship and the Sandi Bloomberg Scholarship will be announced shortly. For more information on the scholarship program go to www.huntingtonarts.org.

The Next Chapter pop up in our Main Street Gallery

Many people were disappointed at the closing of Book Revue last year, a place embedded in the cultural landscape of Huntington village. When HAC heard of Next Chapter LI (spearheaded by Mallory Braun) taking up the mantle to have an independent bookstore in Huntington Village, we wanted to do all we could to support them. For the last several weeks, Next Chapter LI has had a pop-up bookstore in our Main Street Gallery on weekends, bringing in hundreds of people to support our local economy. We look forward to supporting Next Chapter until they find a new brick and mortar location. Follow Next Chapter LI, Book Review and HAC on social media to confirm dates/ times of the pop-up.

In April Colored Colors came to HAC when artist, Joseph Santarpia, needed a space to exhibit his work after a previous opportunity had abruptly fallen through. We thought of no better partner than Michael Smith and our new neighbor The Agency. Michael and his team quickly accepted Joseph's work into their amazing offices at 229 Main Street in Huntington Village. The exhibition featured works from Joseph's series, Bound, Exhaust, and Scope. Joseph is a recent graduate of the Stony Brook MFA program. You can find his work at www.santarpiastudio.com.

The work of Joseph Santarpia at The Agency

Lithology Brewing Company, Huntington Arts Council, and Colored Colors held a call to commission an artist can for the June 3 release of Lithology's Summer Colors. The inspiration for the design was to pull from the three partners' core values of Inclusivity, Opportunity, and Community. It was a competitive open call, with a public vote for the design with over 600 participants. Thank you to Colored Colors and Lithology for this opportunity to support both local nonprofits and artists. A portion of net proceeds from the sale of Summer Colors will be donated to the Huntington Arts Council, benefiting our general programming. Come down June 3rd to Lithology Brewery in Farmingdale, 211a Main Street, Farmingdale, NY 11735 to see who won!

a passion for great hospitality. This past year HAC has featured local artists Nicole Franz, Angela Newman AKA Anjipan, Jean Cohn, and now Patty Eljaiek. Leilu is located at 10 New Street in Huntington Village. For information/reservations go to www.leiluhuntington.com or call 631-944-3111.

CONVERSATIONS IN THE ARTS

Conversations in the Arts will return in the early Fall and continue to provide a platform to bring artists and scholars from the arts community together to support and encourage collaboration and the exploration of ideas. If you are interested in curating one of these events please submit a brief outline and suggested panelists to director@huntingtonarts.org

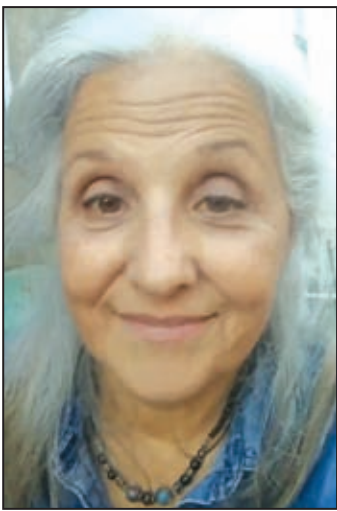

Previous Conversations in the Arts, are available on facebook.com/HuntingtonArts/live_videos/, HAC's podcast feed and these other platforms.

Arts Leadership Forums, the reimagined Arts Administrator Forums will return in the Fall. Topics and locations TBD with the ongoing objective of providing a series of professional development sessions that address a variety of topics designed to strengthen and grow the capacity of arts organizations on Long Island.

About the Cover

Marie Winn

Five years ago HAC decided to provide our artist members with the opportunity to create artwork representing the Huntington Summer Arts Festival for the Summer issue of our Arts Cultural News. This year Marie Winn's oil painting "Together Again" was chosen for the cover. "With this piece I hope to communicate the simple joy of being together again. I have been waiting with great anticipation to be surrounded by my multi-faceted community in the beautiful outdoors, with the sounds of live music. What we've taken for granted for too long now will be balm for the soul. I've been working as a liturgical musician for 55 years now, and I think that has influenced my oil work, making it very figurative in nature, since I do paint quite a lot of what I see in my workings with the church. I am most interested in portraying people, and how they are interacting with each other in random small moments. When considering what the outdoor concert season would look like, all I can think about is the enjoyable 'connected-ness' of the crowd, and how that would look and feel. It's been so long since we've had such luxury." Said Marie.

Long Island Grants for the Arts

Statewide Community Regrant Program 2022 Cycle

The Huntington Arts Council administers the Statewide Community Regrant Program (SCR) to Nassau and Suffolk County artists and nonprofit arts organizations. The program was formed in 1977 to bring arts funding to every part of New York State. This program supports a variety of categories with the goal of keeping the arts thriving in our communities. Those categories are, Creative Communities, Creative Learning, and Creative Individuals.

Creative Communities Recipient Friends of North Shore Symphony Orchestra

Congratulations to all of our SCR 2022 Awardees on their funded programming! A special thank you to Huntington Fine Arts for hosting our first in person awards ceremony since 2019! We were able to have a select number of programs presented at the ceremony; Anupama Annam, Elena Faverio, Segundo Orellana, and Julie Lyon representing Westbury Arts. We are looking forward to seeing all of the projects come to fruition.

2023 Grants for the Arts Workshops

The 2023 cycle upon us! Those interested in applying for this program must attend a free grants workshop. These informational workshops are mandatory. Due to recent changes at the state level the workshop dates are TBD. We do know however, that three of the workshops will be in person/hybrid workshops and the remaining 6 workshops will be virtual. The Zoom link for the workshops will be in a confirmation email you will receive after registering for the workshop. Additional information, including dates, times, location and registration for the workshops will be posted to our website as it become available. Our website address is www.huntingtonarts.org. Questions can be directed to grants4arts@huntingtonarts.org.

We look forward to seeing you all at the workshops!

SCR Technical Assistance Seminars

The Huntington Arts Council's Statewide Community Regrant Program is excited to announce we will be hosting Technical Assistance Seminars. The seminars cover budgeting and community engagement. Additionally, we are partnering with Eastern Suffolk BOCES to work specifically with teaching artists to learn the NYS LearningStandards, how it works with their art form, and how to put together lesson plans. Please check our website for dates at www.huntingtonarts.org.

NYSCA/NYFA Artist as Entrepreneur Program

At the end of March the Huntington Arts Council in collaboration with the Consortium of Long Island Arts Councils, presented the NYSCA/NYFA Artist as Entrepreneur professional development program in our Main Street Gallery. This free, intensive, multi-day program had artists of all disciplines participate. Covering the relevant topics of strategic planning, finance, law, marketing and fundraising, in a variety of interactive formats, the sessions were educational and encouraged collaboration.

NYSCA/NYFA Artist as Entrepreneur participants

The artist participants best described the experience..

"My weekend at the NYSCA/NYFA Artist as Entrepreneur Program presented by the Huntington Arts Council was incredibly informative and inspiring. I began the program admitting that the word "entrepreneur" made me feel nervous and ended it excited to share my project created from what I had learned. Thank you so much, HAC and NYFA/NYSCA. Extremely motivating!"

I recently attended the Artist Entrepreneurial

Program at the Huntington Arts Council and I wanted to thank you. The resources given to us were wonderful and will definitely be useful in planning a successful business.

Thank you Huntington Art Council and NYSCA/NYFA for your vital artists program discussing business planning, taxes, expenses, income, grants, fiscal sponsorships, crowdfunding opportunities, legalities, marketing, social media, portfolio review and so much more. Those few days were invaluable to my practice and I've made many new creative and like-minded and life-long friends!
